Call Center Job Interview Preparation Guide.

Question # 1

Will you be comfortable working in different shifts?

Answer:-

Yes, I can. I might have difficulties at the beginning, but I am sure that my body will easily adjust to working at odd hours. Staying up throughout the nights is not a problem for me. You can take this as an opportunity to talk about how well suited for the job you are by saying things like-

* I am enthusiastic and energetic about my work.

* I am very proficient and hard working.

* I can work efficiently and with the same amount of zeal and energy at any time in the day.

* I can strive hard to achieve my goals and at the same time manage other aspects of the job.

One thing to keep in mind while praising yourself is to avoid the use of superlatives like 'extremely' hardworking, the 'best' at xyz, the 'most' efficient etcetra. Selling yourself is good, but the subtler the trumpeting, the better it is.

Question # 4

What does a call center mean to you?

Answer:-

This seemingly harmless question is a way for your prospective employer to gauge how serious you are, and what your commitment to the job will be. This standard question should be replied to earnestly, and it's important not to give the impression that you are planning to leave as soon as a better opportunity comes along. Interviewers are usually looking for employees that will stay with the company for a long time and make a career out of their job.
